STOLEN FURS

Detectives Believe Goods Valued at $150,000 Are Hidden.

Detective Search Near Ambler for Furs Which Were Recently Taken From Rooms at Clifton House, Fort Washington—Two Suspects Arrested.

Search for stolen furs valued at more than $150,000, which are believed to have been hidden by the thieves near Philadelphia, was started Friday night by detectives after the furs followed the arrest of two alleged members of a band of fur thieves who recently operated in Philadelphia and New York.

Chaim Ochman, of Fourth and Moore streets, Philadelphia, one of the suspects, was identified as a man who had assisted in the swindle of an Arch street furrier a year ago. Magistrate Carson held Ochman in $1500 bail for a further hearing while Morris Bernstein, of New York, was held in $2500 bail for a further hearing at the same time.

Three trunks filled with fur pieces and a number of fur-trimmed garments were brought from the suspects' apartments in the hotel to the office of Captain of Detectives Souder in City Hall.

There an expert summoned by the detectives, placed a value of $20,000 on the seized furs. All of the stock had previously been offered for sale by the two men for the small amount of $3000.

That the $20,000 worth of furs hid in a small portion of the total hidden by the gang, is the belief of Detectives Kelly, Benz and Boyle, who rounded up the suspects who were held. That a quantity of furs believed to be stolen goods were stored in a house at an abandoned farm near Ambler several weeks ago, was learned by the police.

Detectives who accompanied state troopers to the barn to seize the stolen furs on this occasion, arrived at the farm an hour after the thieves had fled with their booty.

When Ochman was arraigned for a hearing he was identified by Samuel Brenner, a fur dealer, at 832 Arch street, as one of a trio who had obtained $100,000 from him a year ago through the sale of a shipment of stolen furs. Brenner testified he had paid over his money to the men when railroad road detectives stepped in and seized the furs. This transaction took place at the old Clifton house, Fort Washington, and before Brenner could proceed against the swindlers the men escaped.

Several days ago Brenner was engaged to appraise some furs by Harman Dimer, a furrier at 442 Ritten street. When Brenner walked into the hotel where the furs that Dimer had contemplated purchasing were on display, he immediately recognized Ochman as one who had swindled him a year ago. Fearing that the same trick was about to be played on him, Dimer, Brenner hurried to the police and gave information which led to the arrest of the men.

Detectives assert that as the result of the arrests they will be able to clear up robberies in Philadelphia and New York totaling $150,000.

Had Not Met for 48 Years.

There was great rejoicing, one day last week, in the home of Albert Shook in Norristown. Mr. Shook, who is a well known plasterer hereabouts, lived for a number of years on the Ambler Highlands, and is therefore known to a large number of residents. Mr. Shook was pleasantly surprised when his brother, Jerry, whom he had not seen in 48 years, walked into his home at the county seat last week and introduced himself.

The announcement caused much joy, and the hand clasp of the brothers was a long one. About 48 years ago the brothers separated and they had not met until they greeted each other in Norristown last week. Jerry, as he is affectionately called, hails from Phoenix, Arizona, and to a reporter of the "Gazette" he told quite an interesting story of the condition now existing in that far-away country.

Mr. Shook said in part: "I am an inspector on the Santa Fe railroad and located at Phoenix, which, as you know, is in the Salt River Valley. Like all other sections of the country, our people were prosperous during the time of the war and it was discovered that outside of Egypt it was the only section of the United States where cotton can be grown.

There was a great demand for it during the war and it brought a big price. Almost everybody who had a piece of ground planted cotton, but at the close of the great light the bottom dropped out and today it can not be sold at any price. This together with the long drought, there being no rain for about two years, has killed off thousands of cattle and in addition there is no market for cattle. This would then have been the fate of Mr. Shook, who is a ranchman, but he is also a weather. For miles," he continued, "nothing but the bare ground is seen, and the water holes and creeks are dry, which causes great suffering among the cattle and a tremendous loss to the ranchmen. Business at the copper mines is also at a stand-still. During the war and for a short time afterwards the miners received $7 to $8 per day, but at the present time there is very little doing and there is no mining being done at all. Oranges, lemons and olives are also grown, while cantaloupes is on one of the main crops. Mr. Shook stated that just prior to his leaving for the east there were shipped from Phoenix 1800 cantaloups of the latter, for which the farmers will receive, after freight charges and commissions are deducted, about $1 per crate. A crate contains four dozens. Mr. Shook said that California is about 100 per cent busy and the shipments from that state are as great as ever. Mr. Shook resembles his brother very much, excepting in height. Before going west he lived in Chambersburg, and had never been to Montgomery county until the present visit. He will spend some time here visiting other relatives and also many places of interest.

Stolen Car in Horsham.

Recently nearby residents noted a large touring car which afterward proved to be a Hudson, driven by two men, turn into the Whitmer road, in Horsham which is not much used.

Shortly afterward a Ford car driven by one man, followed. Later in the day the Hudson car was discovered in an unfrequented spot stripped of all tires and accessories. It is supposed the thieves ran it to the point where it was found and stripped it loading their loot on the Ford car which followed and took the accessories back to Philadelphia to be sold. The matter was reported to the State Police and they took charge of the stripped car.

A stripped Chandler automobile was found at the base of Samson's hill, on York road, a mile below Horsham, an early hour one day later. Chief Lever of the Abington police, was notified and the car was found to belong to Agent Dougherty, of the National Cash Register company whose offices are at Norristown. The car was driven on Wednesday night to Philadelphia and had left it standing on Chestnut street in front of the Bailey building, between 12th and 13th streets, from which place it was stolen. All of the contents of the car and the tires and rims were taken.

In talking of this theft, Chief Lever said this was the fourth Chandler automobile that had been stolen, stripped and abandoned in this territory in the past two weeks.

Wm. J. Bysher, a Candidate.

Wm. J. Bysher, of Erdenheim, has announced his candidacy for a re-nomination at the hands of the Republican party for the position of treasurer of Springfield township.

Mr. Bysher is completing his first term, and during his incumbency has been courteous to the taxpayers and prompt and accurate in handling the public funds. His business connections are happily such that he is rarely out of the township for any considerable length of time, so that he is usually available at all hours and is ever accessible to the taxpayers who desire either service or information, both of which having been most generously given during his term of office.

The taxpayers have been accorded the courtesy, by mail and telephone, of the prompt receipt of their bills and every opportunity given them to secure their discount on early payment of taxes, in accord with the law.

The funds have been capably handled, and all of the affairs of the office administered with integrity, the position having been during the active war period and the present slump following most difficult to fill with fidelity to the township and with a view of according the taxpayers the facilities and courtesies desired in the present commercial and financial crisis. How well Mr. Bysher has succeeded in serving the people and conserving the township's best interests may well be seen when it is realized that there has been a gradual reduction of the bonded debt, and at present Springfield enjoys the very rare distinction among townships of the first class in having been able to completely pay off its bonded road debt and to entirely liquidate all of its floating and current liabilities, which is indeed a credit to any public official.

BORO REJECTS FRAME HOUSES.

Ambler Will Not Permit Erection of 20 Bungalows.

Violation of Building Ordinance—Street Work Progressing Very Economically—South Ambler Demands Attention—Other Business.

The proposition offered by Chairman Gillin, of the highway committee which had for its purpose the issuing by the township committee of permits to dig up the streets by public service concerns and others, and which motion was seconded by Mr. Murrill, was rejected by Ambler borough council at its regular monthly meeting held in town hall last Wednesday evening.

After rejecting Mr. Gillin's motion it was voted to instruct the clerk to issue all permits in duplicate form, one of which is to be filed with the highway committee.

Members responding to the roll call were: James Gillin, William Brown, Joseph Cavalier, William Hough, Joseph J. Diver and Richard Murrill. The absentees were: Henry C. Biddle, J. Walter Lauer and Robert Bousie.

Mr. Brown, of the fire committee, reported that the condition complained of with regard to one of the fire-hydrants in South Ambler will be remedied at an early date, assurance having been given by the water company.

Mr. Gillin, reporting for the highway committee, stated that he has taken up the matter with regard to the condition at the pike and Euclid avenue with the state highway department.

Mr. Gillin also stated that the Alloys Products corporation will pay $1 each for empty tarvia barrels.

Regarding the work on the streets during the month Mr. Gillin reported that the first 1000 gallons of tarvia have been applied to Main street and slag had been also spread thereon, which together with the tarvia cost $271.86.

Rosemary avenue has been repaired at a cost of $10.28. On Woodland avenue $136 was spent, and on Park from Rosemary to Mattison avenues the work cost $49.86. Butler avenue, from Main street to the railroad, in placing tarvia and slag thereon cost $67.80, making a total cost for street work of the month of July of $529.80.

Mr. Cavalier called council's attention once more to the deplorable condition of Chestnut and Center streets in the South Ambler section. This is the third time, according to record, that Mr. Cavalier has asked council for some consideration for the removal of the section named. Heavy motor trucks are largely responsible for the condition, it is said. In its present condition, Mr. Cavalier said, these streets are dangerous to travel, and unless some action is taken soon council is likely to have trouble. The matter was referred to the highway committee.

Mr. Gillin also stated that the highway committee had instructed the borough engineer to run a level on Park avenue from Trinity avenue to Highland avenue so that the proper grade may be had, and also to figure out the number of cubic yards of earth removed. The committee agreed to allow Manwarling and Cummings, who are now building the pike, the right to the soil for the removal thereof.

The motion granting this privilege to the above contractors was made by Mr. Gillin and was seconded by Mr. Murrill.

The latter again called council's attention to the many low hanging wires over the town and requested council to take some action in the matter. On motion of Mr. Brown, which carried, the clerk was instructed to take the matter up with the public service companies concerned.

Clerk Johnson was also instructed to notify the Armon estate that the old stepping stones in front of its property must be removed. Treasurer Faust stated that there is a balance in the treasury of $275.45, and he asked permission that the same may be added to the general fund, which was agreed to. The note for $500 was ordered renewed.

H. J. Daker, in the interest of Joseph H. Fritz, addressed council asking permission on behalf of Mr. Fritz to erect about 20 frame houses, of the bungalow type on the Oak park tract. After a discussion permission was refused, on the ground that it will conflict with the existing building ordinance.

The Bell Telephone company, as has been customary since the borough granted the company a franchise, filed its bond for $5000. Bills amounting to $471.41 were ordered paid.

LICE MENACE ALL POULTRY.

Plans Should at Once Be Made to Free Hens.

Is a Dry Powder and Cheap to Put in
The Feathers—It is Quick and Easily Applied, Very Efficient and Lasting in Its Effects.

Nothing has given so much satisfaction in getting rid of chicken lice as sodium fluoride, used by poultry specialists in the United States Department of Agriculture. It kills adults and young lice, including the young which emerge from eggs present at the time of treatment.

Sodium fluoride can be obtained in two forms known as commercial and as chemically pure. Both of these are in the dry state, the first being a dry powder and the second in small crystals somewhat lumpy. While the chemically pure material is effective, it is not so easily applied by the dusting method as the more finely powdered commercial form, and furthermore it costs more. The commercial grade should contain 90 to 98 per cent. sodium fluoride.

ASK FOR SODIUM FLUORIDE.
This material is the sodium salt of the chemical element known as fluorine, and hence is a compound very similar to ordinary table salt, which is known chemically as sodium chloride. In asking for sodium fluoride, therefore, it is important that the name, "fluoride," be carefully stated to the druggist. Up to the present the demand for the material has been very limited. Prior to the work done by the department specialists, its only known insecticidal use was against cockroaches, for which it was very effective. Owing to this limited demand many druggists do not handle sodium fluoride, but it is easily obtainable from manufacturing chemists and druggists will get it for customers if requested.

In a dry state sodium fluoride does not deteriorate rapidly. It should be kept in a dry place, either in bottles with stoppers or in closely covered cans. In this condition it will remain active indefinitely.

If proper methods are followed remarkable control is obtained. One thorough application of sodium fluoride to all fowls will destroy completely all the lice present. It is essential, however, to see that treatment is thorough, and that every fowl is treated. It may be applied in two forms—as a dry dust and as a dip. In the dust from the action of sodium fluoride is comparatively slow; hence, if examined the next day treating, or even two or three days later, a few lice may be found, but the material persists, and after four or five days all lice disappear. It kills, too, all lice emerging from eggs on the feathers. For best results small amounts of the material should be placed on different parts of the infested fowls.

"PINCH METHOD" EFFECTIVE.
Specialists have found what they call the "pinch method" to be entirely effective against all lice, and to have the advantage of economy of time and material. The material is placed in an open vessel on a table, the fowl is held by the wings or legs in one hand, while with the other hand a small pinch of the chemical is placed among the feathers next to the skin in this way: One pinch on the head, one on the neck, two on the back, one on the breast, one below the vent, one on the tail, one on either thigh, and one scattered on the underside of each wing when spread. Each pinch can be distributed somewhat by pushing the thumb and fingers among the feathers as the material is released. It is advisable when dusting to hold the chicken over a large shallow pan, as in this way the small amount of material ordinarily lost is recovered.

The material may be applied with a shaker but this method has disadvantages when compared with the pinch method. The material is shaken into the feathers with one hand while the feathers are opened with the other. A second person is needed to hold and turn the fowl. In this method the amount of sodium fluoride used may be reduced by adding some finely powdered material such as road dust or flour. If the material is used alone somewhat more of it is required than by the pinch method, and more or less of it floats in the air and causes irritation to the throat and nose. Care should be taken to avoid the burning effects of the chemical on the operators' hands. Fowls should be turned into the open as fast as dusted to prevent possible injury from breathing the dust. For young chickens, young turkeys, and indeed all newly hatched fowls the dusting method is recommended rather than dipping. This applies, also, to sick fowls.

DIPPING IS QUICKEST METHOD.

The common objection to dipping poultry to rid them of lice have been overcome by the specialists by using the sodium fluoride solution. In general the dipping method is applicable to the south and to summer treatments in the North. A rather warm, sunny day is preferred so fowls will dry quickly. Windy weather should be avoided. Dipping is preferred over dusting because it reduces the cost of materials, is more rapidly done, and discomfort for the operator is avoided. The lice die more quickly, too. A supply of tepid water and a tub are needed. Three-fourths to 1 ounce of commercial or two-thirds of an ounce of chemically pure sodium fluoride added to each gallon of water should be used. It is readily dissolved by stirring. The tub should be filled to within 6 or 8 inches of the top. Hold the fowl's wings over the back and quickly submerge the fowl, leaving the head out. Duck the head once or twice. Let the bird drain a few seconds; 20 to 30 seconds' immersion is enough for the body and only an instant for the head.

Lansdale Hero Rests At Gettysburg.
Among the heroes to be buried at the National Cemetery at Gettysburg on July 31 is Private Bryan J. Clugston, Co. F, 11th Reg. 28th Div., and whose home was at Lansdale.

The hero's parents attended the funeral. Private Clugston was killed in action Sept. 6, 1918, near Fismes, France. He enlisted May 3, 1917, at Norristown.

—Bucks county's real estate is assessed at $728,409 more this year than in 1920, according to statistics compiled at the county commissioners' office, Doylestown. The total valuation of all real estate taxable in the county is slightly less than fifty million dollars, or $48,812,621, to be exact.

Everything for QUALITY —nothing for show

THAT'S OUR IDEA in making
CAMELS—the Quality Cigarette.

Why, just buy Camels and look at the package! It's the best packing science has devised to keep cigarettes fresh and full flavored for your taste. Heavy paper outside—secure foil wrapping inside and the revenue stamp over the end to seal the package and keep it air-tight.

And note this! There's nothing flashy about the Camel package. No extra wrappings that do not improve the smoke. Not a cent of needless expense that must come out of the quality of the tobacco.

Camels wonderful and exclusive Quality wins on merit alone.

Because, men smoke Camels who want the taste and fragrance of the finest tobaccos, expertly blended. Men smoke Camels for Camels smooth, refreshing mildness and their freedom from cigarette aftertaste.

Camels are made for men who think for themselves.

STANDARD

The Fastest Selling Tire In America

The increasing popular demand for the Firestone Standard 30x3½ inch tire over a period of years has given us big volume. Our Plant No. 2 devoted wholly to this size tire with a capacity of 16,000 tires and 20,000 tubes per day cuts costs on every operation.

On May 2, we dropped our price to $13.95 passing on to the car owner the full benefits of this big sales volume and this labor-saving plant. This tire has been our standard for years—four plies long staple fabric—extra gum between plies—heavy non-skid tread. The greatest value ever offered car owners. Insist on Firestone.

Our Cord Tire Values

Firestone Cord tires are made exclusively in Plant No. 1. Our process of double gum-dipping each ply of cord gives thicker insulation. The massive non-skid tread, with extra thickness where wear is most severe, gives real effectiveness in holding the car against slipping and adds many extra miles of service.

TOWNSHIP DEBT FREE.

Springfield's Unique Record in Government

Bond Issue Completely Liquidated and Current Bills Also Paid—Highways Well Cared For—Miscellaneous Business.

Springfield township, Montgomery county, enjoys the rare distinction of being entirely without road debt. Not only was the last of its bond issue paid on Aug. 1, but at the regular monthly meeting, held Wednesday evening of last week at the township building, the current liabilities were all paid in full, and a balance remains in the township treasury.

All the members of the board were in attendance except Mr. Ballard, president, and the meeting was presided over by Vice President Arnold Aliman.

The minutes of the meeting, held July 8, were read and approved.

The Carson college and the Flourtown and Erdensheim Civic association had addressed the board with regard to police protection for the college children who bathe in the Wissahickon creek.

Chief Bysher stated that he has been granting the protection and giving the children the exclusive bathing privilege during their bathing hours. The stream had been largely patronized by residents of Philadelphia and Norristown. The action of the police was commended by the board.

A letter was received from the Community Brotherhood of Oreland, thanking the police for cooperation on July 4, and also thanking the board for the erection of street signs.

The board of health reported a case of mumps in Oreland.

Chester J. Johnson petitioned the board for the privilege of renting a strip of ground from the township along his property on Hillcrest avenue. Inasmuch as Chief Bysher is at present using the ground as a garden it was deemed by the board inadvisable to make any change.

The question of turning in the Ford roaster and covering cars of the township for new cars was discussed and bids were read concerning prices.

Abington and Southampton avenues are to be repaved by Road Superintendent Harner. It was discovered that some person had hauled a quantity of cinders, from Mermaid lane, which the township had placed there as repairs to the street. However, the police stopped the proceeding.

The question as to the necessity of erecting warning signs along the Chestnut Hill and Springhouse turnpike was discussed by the board with special reference to the dangerous crossings at Mill road, Wissahickon avenue and Haas Lane.

Bills amounting to $2544.86 were read and ordered paid.

Treasurer Wm. J. Bysher reported as follows: Balance at last report, $18,991.92; Philadelphia Electric Co., $25; street permits, $12; Belle Telephone Co., permit, $1; 1920 taxes, $194.53; 1921 taxes, $994.42; orders paid, $6583.81; balance, $12,735.26. Uncollected 1920 taxes, $440.70.

The question of fixing the commissions allowed the treasurer to be elected was discussed, and the members were unanimous in favoring a reduction from the present rate of 5 per cent., some suggesting 3 per cent, and others favoring 2 1/2 per cent, with 1 per cent. for miscellaneous receipts. The law provides that if any change is made it shall be passed by ordinance at least 30 days preceding the election. Action by the board will, therefore, have to be taken at the September meeting, if it is desired to make any change.

Coroner's Office Not Attractive.

While the race for office of coroner of Montgomery county is to be free for all, very few entries will be in evidence, judging from the lack of interest displayed in the poorest paid of any county post.

William Neville, now acting coroner, and whose work since the spring of 1920 has been declared illegal by the solicitor to the county commissioners, will not be a candidate. He has had enough and says he is glad to let anyone take it who has the nerve and money to expend on the job.

"I will be glad to get away from it," said Mr. Neville. "There is nothing but work in it. I will not accept again under any condition."

Mr. Neville's earnings during the past six months have averaged about a dollar a day, out of which he paid telephone bills and other small items. He is also under bonds of $30,000, which demand a large premium.

The only bright spot that might be perceived in the coroner's berth rests upon the hard luck of another. In case the sheriff becomes disabled or for any reason unable to attend to his duties, the coroner becomes sheriff.

To Preach on Tour.

An evangelistic tour of several hundred miles in the wildest part of Montana is being made in a motor car by Dr. William Barnes Lower, pastor of the Trinity Presbyterian Church, Logan.

Dr. Lower was formerly moderator of the Presbytery of Philadelphia, North. He will co-operate with three western clergy-men on his tour, starting at Wolf Point, Montana, and preaching at ranches, 50 to 100 miles from a railroad. He is also taking with him trout-fishing equipment which he expects to use in intervals of preaching.

Wills Probated.

George Edwards, late of East Norristown, disposes of an estate valued at $150, which he gives to his wife for life, and after her death, divides it equally among his children. Three of the latter, Mary, Elizabeth and George Warren Edwards are named as executors.

James W. VanBillard, late of North Wales, and once a figure in democratic politics in Montgomery Co., disposes of an estate valued at $20,000, which is given to the First National Bank of Lansdale, in trust for the benefit of the widow Phebe Jane. After her death the estate is to be divided into six equal shares which are to be given to the children of decedent, or if any be deceased, to their children. The widow and the First National Bank of Lansdale are named as executors and testator adds, "I desire that my old friend John M. Dottra shall be selected as attorney to settle my estate."

By the will of Llewellyn Dillinger, of Souderton, his $2800 estate is given to his wife, Alice Dillinger, who is legatee.

Ambler and the K. & M. ball teams played a Twin-County league game on Saturday, the former winning by the score of 9 to 4. Michener twirled a good game for the victors, keeping the bases hit well scattered, while Walmsley was touched up for 11 hits and the four errors of the losing team were more or less disastrous. Kindig, Michener and Dennis each made two hits. In the same league Wyndmoor defeated Weldon 7 to 1.

Owing to the changed outlook as to taxation conditions in Washington, Dr. Mattison has abandoned for the present his efforts to have Church street widened at his own expense and will probably not begin the project until the row of houses on Randolph avenue, as contemplated, is completed. It is possible that he may likewise abandon the section of the houses upon Renfrew street also, as he says that under present conditions of taxation he will not be able to pay the present excessive government taxes and give employment this winter, as well.

Work on the Chestnut Hill and Springhouse turnpike northward of Lindenwood avenue progresses rapidly. The section from Robert C. Hamilton's residence northward to the old Hollowell garage is completed, as is also the section from Mt. Pleasant to Forest avenue. The remainder of the highway is graded. It looks as though the trolley company will delay the entire completion of the last section by the work yet necessary. It is hoped that the road across the highway just north of Mt. Pleasant avenue. All the material for the road is now on the ground.

On Saturday afternoon the Ambler tennis players, reinforced by several E. Hough, journeyed to North Wales and acquitted themselves very creditably against the tennis cracks of that borough who have been winning so consistently from local county players.

After a hard-fought match, in which two of the sets went to duce, James Williams, John Fisher and Victor Potts all played good tennis, and the whole Ambler contingent felt much encouraged over their shining of last Saturday afternoon.

On account of an open date in the Montgomery County league Ambler did not play last Saturday. Doylestown played the Washington Braves and defeated them by a one-sided score. Leasdale crossed bats with Glenside, champions of the Suburban league, and the former were only able to win by the score of 4 to 2.

Richie, of Ambler, with a team beat a team conceded not near so good as he, held Glenside to 9 hits, and after a second inning they were able to score, the locals winning 5 to 4.

There is no question about Richie's ability to pitch after his performance in the games at Glenside and Lansdale. There is no question about his performance in the games at Glenside and Lansdale. There is no question about his performance in the games at Glenside and Lansdale.

Sunday School next Sunday morning at 9:30 at Zion Lutheran church, preaching service at 10:45 a. m. Brotherhood meeting Thursday evening, Aug. 12th, at the home of Mr. William Clymer, Wissahickon avenue. Quite a number of the congregation are planning to attend the summer outing of the Wissahickon Valley Lutheran church, which will be held on the grounds of the Edward McCloskey estate, Bethlehem pike south of Wissahickon avenue. There will be a number of features to entertain those attending, among which will be a number of races.

The regular monthly meeting of the Flourtown Fire company was held last Thursday evening, and the usual order of business was transacted.

The annual picnic of the Ladies' Aid society of Springfield Presbyterian church was held last Saturday on the grounds of Robert Bisping at Wyndmoor. All attending report having a good time. A feature of the outing was a baseball game between the ladies' club and the Christian Endeavor club, according to eye witnesses, and one result was that several members of both teams were seen hurrying to the drug store, and if the drugstore is to be believed there certainly must have been a party on hand. Any how the game was worth going to see, because everybody said so. Miss Margaret Wilson was the pitcher for the ladies, and Robert Gordon officiated in the same capacity for the men. There were strikes, outs, base on balls, and all kinds of hits. One of the ladies, who made a home run, hit the ball so far that she became excited and ran around the bases twice, and a thoughtless fellow near the trolley tracks added two runs to the score instead of one. The game lasted 6 and a half innings and resulted in a victory for the men by the score of 18 to 16. Everybody voting that it was the most enjoyable outing ever held by the society.

George Weidner had a force of men at work in the local freight yard on Monday unloading several cars of coal. George and James Snyder have sold their Ford touring car, which has been confined in the Chestnut Hill hospital undergoing treatment, has sufficiently recovered to return to her home where she is now convalescing.

Rev. A. E. Lott, pastor of Springfield Presbyterian church, is on his vacation and will occupy the pulpit the first Sunday in September. Rev. Mr. Heppe will preach in the morning on the Sundays Mr. Lott is absent, and on Tuesday evening the Christian Endeavor will have charge of the service and will have a special program prepared each Sunday evening.

Mrs. Harry Bates, who has been confined in the Abington hospital for some time, has returned to her home.

Samuel Johnson, who has been quite ill, continues to improve favorably.

WYNDMOOR.

Charles McClenaghan has returned to his home after having spent several days in Atlantic City.

The Wyndmoor team the Suburban league, having an open date last Saturday in the league, played the strong Felin team. The locals won by the score of 7 to 6.

The heavy rain Sunday did considerable damage to the roads in this section. There were a number of washouts, and road supervisors were out early repairing the damage.

A large number of the scholars and friends of Grace Lutheran Sabbath school were disappointed last Wednesday. It was the occasion of the annual picnic of the Sunday school, but rain spoiled the day and these intending to enjoy the outing stayed at home. In the evening took part in doing justice to the good things to eat that had been prepared for the picnic.

Robert Maust is now in camp at Mt. Gretna with his regiment. He is a member of Troop G, 1st Pennsylvania

Demonstrations were given by the Skipack and Collegeville companies. All bills were reported paid.

It was again a silver shell which sank the first German U-boat during the war. He gave a vivid account during the encounter and how his men assisted him in placing the fatal shot.

Following the meeting refreshments were served by the Social Committee, after which several members of the Fort Washington Fire company entertained with musical selections.

Township Treasurers' Commissions.

There has been some unanimity as to the rate of commissions received by treasurers of first class townships in Montgomery county.

For the last four years Cheltenham township paid its treasurer a commission on road taxes of 2 per cent, and on school taxes of 2 per cent.

Abington township paid its treasurer a commission on road taxes of 3 per cent, and on school taxes of 2 1/2 per cent.

Springfield township paid its treasurer a commission of 5 per cent, on road taxes, except where discount was allowed, and 5 per cent, on all school taxes.

For the next four years the commissions of the treasurer of Springfield township have been set at 2 1/2 per cent, straight on road taxes and 4 per cent, on school taxes, at which rate it will still be higher than any of the neighboring townships.

There is no doubt but that the taxpayers of the borough greatly appreciate the courtesy of William C. Irvin, Edward C. Scott, John L. Shoemaker and the officials of the First National bank in collecting the county and state taxes, otherwise our citizens would be compelled to pay these taxes to the county treasurer in Norristown.

Dr. R. V. Mattison is again endeavoring to impress upon all of his employees the necessity of their spending just as little money as possible, as he says that unless there is some change in the industrial situation very soon, we are going to face a winter of great destitution and many hardships. Owing to the general reluctance of mechanics to accept a moderate reduction in wages, building operations have not been begun to any great extent, and those that are contemplated will not be begun, owing to the changed outlook in conditions affecting taxation, which have been decided upon at Washington, as owing to the falling off in business it is likely that the present tax law will remain in force during the present year.

If this decision of the managers of the committee crystallizes into a fact, will cause what little building there is now to halt or slow down and factories to remain closed, thus adding to the present unemployment of labor with consequent suffering.

There will be a meeting this Thursday evening in town hall of the Republican committeemen and their primaries in preparation of the coming primaries. All persons interested are invited to attend the meeting. Thus far the following have announced their candidacies: School directors: Phillip Maas, George Y. Styer, Dr. Mary P. H. Haugh and Frank C. Weber; tax collector, E. C. Scott; Justice of the Peace, William Urban. The voters will have to decide among the first three candidates as all are for the same term. Thus far there is no opposition to Mr. Weber, who is a candidate to succeed Arthur Nichols. Mr. Nichols, because of his position, it is said will not be a candidate. There is also thus far no opposition to the candidates for tax collector and justice of the peace. Seven councilmen, one auditor, a constable in the Second ward, and election officers in each of the three wards are vacancies that must be filled. There is an effort on foot to promote peace and harmony among the workers, and at present it looks as if this effort will be successful.

The Gospel of Honest Work.

In the course of the long session of the American Federation of Labor at Denver there were many speeches on many topics. One speech stands out among them all, prominent for good sense and straight thinking—that of Mrs. John H. Donlin, president of the Building Trades department of the federation.

It struck out manfully against the idea that has taken possession of many manufacturers, employers and workmen who are engaged in building, that grafting and loafing, saddling the building industry with every kind of illegitimate cost and foolish restriction, are somehow good for the people who make their living in the building trades.

Mr. Donlin was addressing union workmen, but he devoted himself chiefly to the mistakes of laboring men in trying to see how costly and difficult they could make building. He does not believe—as no one else with common sense believes—that labor alone is to blame. He had some hard things to say about the men who manage great industries, and he said nothing that the evidence brought out by the Lockwood committee's investigation in New York does not justify. But he did not stop with castigating the other side; he went on to tell his hearers what their own duty is to their craft and to the community of which they are a part. Here are some of the things he said, which can be read with profit by everyone who is engaged in productive industry.

"We must excel in individual efficiency. Cost of production tells the tale. Wealth cannot be disturbed until it is produced; the more we produce the richer we shall be and the more a dollar will buy."

"Labor must be paid according to American standards, and it must produce accordingly. We cannot be untidily of our responsibilities. Capital and management must bear their share of the burden of readjustment. Labor must agree to a high minimum output for each individual. That will keep wages up and the cost of living down."

One other useful piece of advice that Mr. Donlin gave to labor was that it must stop tying up work on buildings when the only question at issue is one of jurisdiction—where two or more unions are disputing which shall do certain work or how the work shall be divided among them. None of the many annoyances that have driven builders nearly mad is so vexatious as that; none of the many delays that have increased cost and discouraged enterprise is so utterly without excuse as that Mr. Donlin is right in saying that jurisdictional disputes are usually started for reasons that will not stand examination by the magnifying glass.—The Youth's Companion.

It has been used in nine epidemics of dysentery with perfect success. It can always be depended upon to give prompt relief in cases of colic and cholera morbus. When reduced with water and sweetened it is pleasant to take. Every family should keep this remedy at hand.

FORT WASHINGTON NEWS.

Items of Passing Interest Condensed in Short Paragraphs.

Great Firemen's Meeting in Bodenstein's Grove—The Ball Team—Robert Stuart Commences Building Operations.

John Burl has purchased a Ford car.

On Thursday afternoon the Rose Valley baseball team was defeated by Fort Washington in a well-played game by the score of 3 to 2.

The Keasbey and Mattison company, of Ambler, owners of the Old Wenz lime kilns, Whitmarsh, are hauling lime by motor trucks to their plants at Ambler.

Mrs. Wm. H. Leslie, of Whitmarsh, and Mrs. James Craig, of Eoston, have gone to Ocean City to spend several days as the guest of Mrs. Thompson.

On account of being an off day in the Suburban league our baseball club was idle last Saturday. Despite the lowly position that the locals hold in the race for the pennant the boys have given a good account of themselves in almost every game. A number of games, it is true, were lost by one-sided scores, which can only be charged to ineffective pitching. No team in the Suburban league had to battle against more difficulties than the locals were obliged to face all season. In the first place, because of the financial situation the strictest economy had to be practiced by the management. This in itself was enough to send the team into the last ditch, but this alone was not to blame. Pitchers, is the one word that has a large meaning when the lost and won column is reviewed. The injury to Davies is but one of the many blows that the club had to face during the season and which was a decided handicap also to its chances. It is to be hoped that Manager Hetzel's troubles are at end, and during the remainder of the season the club will be able to place a few more games in the won side of the ledger.

Last Saturday Arbutick-Gordon company had a force of men at work unloading a car of sand at Smithtown, which is part of the material that is being placed there by the local company preparatory to the erection of several houses.

"Our community is now very peaceful," said a resident recently, "and we have therefore dispensed with our special officers, and it also looks now as though we are to be without a deputy constable for awhile at least. We are fortunate, however, in having the state police, who are stationed at Ambler and with one of their number always at the telephone awaiting calls and with their high-powered motorcycles there appears to be nothing that our citizens could do that would be more efficient than this," he said. "So far as the deputy constables are concerned I speak of this end of Whitmarsh," he continued.

"but in the Fort Washington section of Upper Dublin we have an elected constable in Elmer Grubb who can be easily reached, which once more causes the remark that we are well protected, despite the discontinuance of the above officers."

Mrs. James Craig, of Boston, Mass., who is on a visit here to her sons, Walter and Dr. A. J. Craig, recently was the guest of Mr. and Mrs. Harry Grebe at their home in Germantown.

A number of our residents of this place will still remember the latter, when they were residents of this place and that Mr. Grebe conducted a bakery in the what is known as the Prock building, formerly owned by the Knipe estate.

Progress is being made with the rebuilding of the railroad trestle from the Trenton Cut-off to Hoopeson mills. Some of the departments at Hoopeson mills worked three days last week. However, the main portion is still closed down.

Officer Jaska, of the Hoopeson coal and iron police, was obliged to place under arrest one day last week, Samuel Drazich, who had created a disturbance among the residents of Hoopeson row. Officer Jaska placed his prisoner in the Ambler lock-up and the next morning he was given a hearing before Justice of the Peace Urban. Drunkenness, from the testimony of witnesses, was the principal cause of the prisoner falling into the hands of the officer. Drazich was discharged after paying a small cost and being told that if he was again arrested for the same offense he will be given a chance to think it over while spending some time in the Montgomery county jail.

Ellis C. White, of Fort Washington, had the good fortune to be one of the 1200 selected, (from 5500 applicants), from Pennsylvania, Maryland, Virginia and the District of Columbia, to attend the citizens' military training camp, at Camp Meade, Md., during the month of August.

A report of the second-annual All-Breed exhibition, held by the North Jersey Shore Kennel club at Long Branch on Saturday, says, "Fox Terriers ably judged by James B. Cooper, of Fort Washington, Pa., were a grand lot with several imported specimens."

The large oak tree at the Hittenshouse garage, which was cut down by the Bell Telephone company, broke some wires and cable in descending to the ground, and about $500 represents the cost of repairs.

Robert Stuart has commenced the first of a number of houses to be erected on his property corner of the turnpike and Bannockburn avenue. Work on the cellar foundation was started last week.

Approximately seventy-five descendants of Thomas and Ann Tomlinson, most of them from Bucks and Montgomery counties, attended the 13th annual reunion of the clan gathering, in Byberry Hall, Philadelphia. The event was one of the most successful ever held. Next year's reunion will be held at the same place.

An interesting program of entertainment was a feature of the clan gathering, the best program the committee has prepared.

West Point A. A. defeated Norristown Giants here Sunday by the score of 13 to 1. Conshohocken, of the Montgomery County league, will play here next Sunday. The officials of the association are complaining because of the poor sportsmanship shown by a number of the fans who attend the games and who will not contribute towards the expense by taking a seat on the stand. It is hoped that in the future, the names of the fans who attend the games, or the class of ball that is now being played will have to be discontinued.

Local truckers here say that there has been quite a drop in the price of vegetables. A few weeks ago as much as $3 per basket was paid for tomatoes, but within a short time the bottom fell out of the market and for one or two days commission men were so overstocked that they were offering less than 50 cents a basket. Sweet corn also took a decided drop, as did lima beans and other vegetables.

Three Women Named for Plymouth Board.

At a meeting held under the auspices of the Plymouth Township League of Women Voters Thursday evening at Grange hall, Plymouth Centre, the names of three women were suggested for the post of school director.

Blank ballots were circulated among those present, and as a result of the vote, the names of the three highest contestants were announced. They are: Mrs. Beulah Sinclair, Mrs. T. A. Griffith and Mrs. Jonathan Caley.

About thirty-five voters of the district were in attendance.

Assembly Holds All Day Services.

The annual Collegeville Assembly, which opened Aug. 1, held all-day services Sunday last. The morning service was preached by Rev. John Watchorn, of Philadelphia. The neighboring congregations united in the service.

The afternoon services were in memory of Rev. Dr. Farrar, the great preacher to children, who died last June. Sunset services were conducted by Dr. Watchorn, and the closing sermon in the evening was preached by Dr. Herman. All services were well attended.

Teachers are Wedded.

and Miss Alice Gruver, of Pipersville, teacher in the Lansdale public schools, were married in Christ's Lutheran Church, Tinkum on Wednesday, August 4 at 3 p. m., the Rev. W. A. Flock officiating.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Shull were the witnesses. Both bride and groom are graduates of Revere High school and Kutztown Normal.

Three Hunt at Gwynedd Square.

The road intersection at Gwynedd Square, a short distance above North Wales and one of the most dangerous points in this locality, was the scene of a serious accident shortly before noon Friday morning when two light automobiles collided, and an entire family of three were injured so badly they were removed to the Montgomery hospital.

William Triesbach, his wife and their four-year-old son were injured. Mrs. Triesbach suffered from head hemorrhages with possible brain concussions and shock. Mr. Triesbach was found to be cut and bleeding. The child, also, was cut.

Glenside will erect a community house as a war memorial.
